This is a program that will define your future.

PURDUE UNIVERSITY

Walgreens and Purdue University College of Pharmacy
PGY1 Community-Based Pharmacy Residency Program, Indianapolis, IN

The residency program is based out of three community-based specialty pharmacy and two ambulatory care clinics. The pharmacists at these sites work closely with medical staff to provide optimal drug therapy for patients. The residency program is offered in partnership with Purdue University where residents receive additional skill development through being involved with practice management. Residency graduate can provide patient care for the members of their community, achieve their professional goals and become a leader within the profession.

Patient Care

- Conduct disease state management programs in oncology, chronic inflammatory diseases, hepatitis C, HIV, and transplant
- Participate in ambulatory care rotations
- Participate in a unique medication safety elective
- Perform medication therapy management
- Recommend and administer vaccines

Practice Advancement

- Develop a collaborative practice agreement
- Create a business plan for a clinical service
- Implement a quality improvement project
- Design and conduct a practice-based research project
- Develop and present a poster or platform presentation at a professional meeting

Leadership

- Develop pharmacy management skills
- Conduct pharmacy visits with pharmacy leadership
- Gain exposure to leadership-level strategic, financial, and policy decision-making
- Attend regional pharmacy meetings
- Engage in professional organizations or community outreach

Teaching and Education

- Provide clinical instruction to student pharmacists
- Precept pharmacy students on IPPE and APPE rotations
- Create written education materials
- Create and deliver an educational presentation

Residency Program Benefits

- Competitive stipend
- Comprehensive medical plan
- Sponsorship for pharmacy-related conferences upon approval
- Residents are eligible for Paid Time Off

Candidate Requirements

- Doctor of Pharmacy degree from a college or school of pharmacy accredited by ACPE
- Indiana pharmacist license within 90 days of the start of the residency program
- Complete the online resident position application at https://jobs.walgreens.com
- Submission of residency application materials to PhORCAS by January 8
  - Curriculum Vitae
  - Three professional letters of recommendation
  - Letter of intent
  - Official university transcripts
- On-site interview (upon invitation)
- Registered with the National Matching Service

For more information

Visit jobs.walgreens.com, scan the QR code or contact: Emily Delman, MS, PharmD
Residency Program Director
emily.delman@walgreens.com

ashp Accredited

Walgreens is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, veteran status, or other characteristics protected by law.

Walgreens