

Indiana University Health

Bloomington PGY1 Residents 2023-2024

L-R: Mary Grace Pherson, PharmD, Jeff Owusu-Ansah, PharmD, and Emily Jansen, PharmD

Emily Jansen, PharmD

Hometown: Greenwood, IN

Education: PharmD, Purdue University

Practice Interests: Critical Care, Internal Medicine

Research Project: Intravenous only therapy versus oral step-down therapy in simple source gram positive bacteremia

Research Project Preceptors: Krista Dumkow, PharmD, BCEMP, BCPS; Guin Ogburn, PharmD, BCCCP

Future Career Plan: After PGY-1, I would like to pursue a PGY-2 in critical care or internal medicine. I would like to get board certified and precept students in the future.

Jeffrey Owusu-Ansah, PharmD

Hometown: University Park, IL

Education: PharmD, Roosevelt University

Practice Interests: Ambulatory Care, Infectious Disease

Research Project: Comparison of 5 versus 7-day cephalexin regimens for treatment of uncomplicated urinary tract infections prescribed from the Emergency Department

Research Project Preceptors: Krista Dumkow, PharmD, BCEMP; Emily Pavich, PharmD, BCCCP

Future Career Plans: Complete a PGY2 pharmacy residency in either ambulatory care or infectious disease once decided. Afterwards, becoming board certified in either practice once decided.

Mary Grace Pherson, PharmD

Hometown: Lafayette, IN

Education: PharmD, Butler University

Practice Interests: Ambulatory Care, Women's Health

Research Project: Evaluation of the role of a pharmacist in the management of gestational hypertension

Research Project Preceptors: Jayna Bland, PharmD, BCPS, Emily Horn, PharmD

Future Career Plans: My goal is to become an ambulatory care pharmacist with an emphasis in women's health. Within the next five years, I would like to have a PGY-2 in ambulatory care and start practicing in the clinic setting.